

More Success for Deer Park at the Gloucestershire Media Awards!

A glittering event in the Gold Cup Suite at Cheltenham Race Course saw Deer Park Archers carry off another 2 awards.

Having won the Gloucestershire 2010 Young Club of the Year, the Club had finalists in 4 categories and archery was further represented by Archery GB Junior Squad and European Champion Kieran Slater.

Deer Park won the 2011 Gloucestershire Senior Club of the Year and Steph Gill won Gloucestershire Coach of the Year both against stiff competition.

Lucy Mason and Kieran, nominees for Young Sports Personality of the Year and Roger Crang, nominated for Outstanding Services to Sport had to settle for runners-up certificates.

The evening commenced with a welcoming address from Sir Steve Redgrave, was hosted by BBC and Sky Television Presenter Jill Douglas, with World and Olympic Rowing Champion Zac Purchase MBE as guest speaker.

Deer Park Equipment Officer and Trainee Coach Steve Mason, Dan Gill, Head Junior Coach and Lynn Benfield Club Treasurer received the Senior Club of the Year Award on an evening when Archery in Gloucestershire was again in the spotlight!

More pictures and background will be available on the Gloucestershire Echo Website.